

Battle of Dallas' Landing Archeology Project Public Outreach Meeting Friday, November 21st, 6 - 8:30 PM Mauricetown Firehall 9544 Noble Street, Mauricetown, NJ

Learn about the project - what has been discovered in the research so far and what is planned at the site. The archeologists and historians of Hunter Research will give presentations throughout the evening at 6 PM and again at 7:30 PM. Stop in anytime throughout the evening. Free refreshments and light dinner will be provided.

We need your help!

Please bring any artifacts that may relate to the Battle of Dallas' Landing so that our researchers can document them. Plus, you will receive a free analysis of what it is and how it may have played a role in the battle. All ownership details will remain anonymous - we just want to see what has been uncovered so far.

Bring your family stories, remembrances and recollections of the battle. Our researchers will set aside a recording room to audio record any memories, thoughts or shared folklore of the battle. Oftentimes these stories can direct the research into informative areas and provide hints on what really happened.
