Moment in History: 1723 Main Street

The Jacob Shinn Post #6, Grand Army of the Republic, a Civil War Veteran Group was organized in Port Norris on Jan. 12, 1887. They initially met at the Knights of Pythias Hall in Port Norris. In 1889, the G.A.R. bought a piece of ground on Main St, Port Norris from Charles Lake.

By 1890 the G.A.R. had erected a building, constructed mostly by civil war veterans. The building is 20' x 40' with two stories. It has 8" x 8" sills on a brick foundation. Joists are 4" x 10" local white cedar. Siding is cedar clapboard and windows are trimmed in white cedar.

The roof is metal and the soffit is ship nose construction with 5 1/2" crown molding. All nails are cut nails. Each corner is wind braced.

In 1890 the second floor was used by the G.A.R. as its lodge headquarters. The first floor was rented to Gibson Andrews, who operated a dry goods store.

On May 14, 1891, the Prosperity Temple #5, Mason link was organized. This was a woman's lodge and they met every Tuesday in the G.A.R. Hall.

Perseverance Home #18 was organized Dec 6, 1894. They met each Thursday evening at the G.A.R. Hall.

Eureka

Who doesn't like found money? Several months ago Dick Smith was cleaning up around the building as he so often does. There was enough trash in the little closet under the stairs to require using a rake and a broom. Far back in the corner, the rake hooked a small box about the size of a one dollar bill which was labeled "Hersey's Cocoa Butter Soap". The box was faded and looked like just another bit of trash but it had something in it. Imagine his surprise when he opened the box to find that it contained MONEY. Stashed there at sometime in the past and overlooked by all the persons who have occupied the building in the years since, there were several silver certificates issued in 1935 as well as a few 1951 dollar bills. For good measure there was a 1923 silver dollar. Imagine his excitement to find yet another gift from the historic corners of the building that we are working so very hard to restore for Port Norris.

Pickings of the Month

February 25, 1888 There are a number of boys and girls of this place whose parents send them to school but if the parents would only drop into the old saw mill they would find them engaged in card playing almost every other day. Their names could be given if necessary. Such conduct is likely to lead into worse excesses.

February 18, 1890 Shoemaker John Hollinger narrowly escaped being burned Saturday night. A bottle of carbon bisulphur, a preparation used for invisible patches, on the shelf over where Mr. Hollinger was at work, bursted, running down on him. The heat from the lamp ignited it, setting fire to Mr. Hollinger's clothes. Mr. Yates, who was passing the shop at the moment, went to his assistance and the flames were soon extinguished.

February 22, 1890 The men on the freight trains of the Central Railroad have a holiday to-day, the trains being abandoned on account of Washington's Birthday.

Meet Norris

Norris is a young male cat from the marshes of the bayshore. He was smart enough to avoid the terrors of osprey and eagles in the area. You can read his story on the website <http://www.historicportnorris.org/newsletter.htm> Starting with this newsletter, Norris will ask a question. See how much you know about Port Norris. The answer is upside down next to the copyright line. Don't cheat. There will be lots of information about the churches in the area at the Bayshore Storytelling on February 28th.

NORRIS ASKS:

Do you know how many churches are in Port Norris?
